GOD IN LOVE UNITES US

NORTH STAFFORDSHIRE METHODIST CIRCUIT

Introduction

Last Summer, the Methodist Conference discussed the Report on Marriage and Relationships called 'God in Love unites us'. This is the latest in a long line of reports stretching back to 1979, on different aspects of marriage and divorce, relationships, singleness, and family life. Sadly, they have not been widely read.

The latest report is a response to questions raised by the Conference in relation to the changes in marriage law in Scotland, England and Wales, and the changing pattern of relationships that we have witnessed since the last official Statement on Marriage in 1992. The working party set up to look at these came up with a set of recommendations for the Conference to consider including attitudes to cohabitation (people living together either before or after marriage), the marriages of people of the same sex, and how we live with Christians who profoundly disagree with us.

The vote at Conference was provisional which means the Synods now have a chance to discuss, change and vote on the proposals and advise the Conference who must vote again in 2020. Even if the proposals go through, it will still be up to each local Church's managing trustees to decide whether their building should be registered for the marriages of same-sex couples. It will be entirely up to the members of the church council whether or not to do this and it will not affect the church's standing with the rest of the Connexion, no matter what is decided.

The proposals recognise that, despite four decades of discussions, Methodists still hold different views on the subject of marriage. The proposed new rules on marriage affirm that belief in marriage between one man and one woman only, remains perfectly acceptable. Alongside that, those who affirm marriage as open to any couple are also affirmed. This model has been called the 'Mixed Economy' and seeks to allow everyone to follow their consciences, whilst respecting those who do not share their views. It is far from perfect, but may be the best way to help the Church live with contradictory convictions.

So, what is all this about?

The Marriage and Relationships Task Group presented a report to the 2019 Methodist Conference with recommendations about various issues to do with relationships in general and marriage in particular. Those recommendations are being submitted to the wider Church for consultation, with a final decision being made at the July 2020 Conference.

How is our Circuit Engaging with Discussions about Cohabitation and Same-Sex Marriage in the Report from The Methodist Conference?

Through:1. Prayer

Please pray for one another, and for our church in this process of discernment and decision making. The Methodist website provides some prayer resources for each day of the week <https://www.methodist.org.uk/about-us/the-methodist-church/marriage-and-relationships-2019/god-in-love-unites-us-prayer-guide/>

2. Provisional Legislation

The Methodist Conference 2019 voted for provisional legislation which would change our approach to marriage and relationships. This was through a report called: God in Love Unites Us.
<https://www.methodist.org.uk/media/12606/3240-10-amended-marriage-and-relationships-report.pdf>

As a result, we are now discussing this across the District in preparation for a vote at our Synod on 25th April 2020. The vote will be on five resolutions as set out in this document downloadable from the Circuit website:
<http://www.northstaffordshiremethodists.org.uk/content/pages/documents/1581066899.pdf>

Our votes from synod and responses will then go forward to Methodist Conference 2020 for a final decision.

3. Conversations

Our conversations will seek to achieve two things:

1. a full open conversation between people coming from different perspectives;
2. to inform the District Synod of the range of views within the District.

Opportunities to engage in the conversation across the District:

Saturday 8 February 2020 at 10:00am at Frodsham, WA6 6BA

Monday 2nd March 2020 at 7pm Temple St, Fenton, ST4 4NW

Wednesday 25 March 2020 at 7:30pm at Trinity Congleton, CW12 4BA

4. Feedback

If individuals wish to talk about their concerns then please speak to your minister or the superintendent minister.

The period between Ascension Day and Pentecost will again in 2020 mark the time when across the world Christians come together to offer up their prayers for evangelisation and renewal, shaped by the words that Jesus taught his own followers: 'Thy Kingdom Come'.

Churches Together in Cheshire, working with the Chester Diocese, is eager to support the planning of local prayer initiatives across the area in that period, 21st -31st May, 2020. In recent years there have been many excellent ideas pursued in Cheshire for prayer times, both individual and shared, prayer walks and vigils, prayer services, and these have made use of resources that have been prepared nationally as well as those specifically suited to local circumstances

Have you, or are you, someone who would like to champion and promote 'Thy Kingdom Come' in your church or in your area? Would it be helpful, encouraging, inspiring even, to hear what others have done and might be planning to do again?

Working with The Thy Kingdom Come national team three 'Inspire and Equip' events are being held around the county. These will be:

Wednesday 19 February from 2.00-4.00pm at Avenue Methodist Church, Wincham Road, Sale, M33 4PL

Tuesday 25 February from 2.00-4.00pm at Nantwich Methodist Church, Hospital Street, Nantwich, CW5 5RP

Tuesday 25 February from 7.30-9.30pm at Hoole United Reformed Church, Hoole Road, Chester, CH2 3NT

You are asked to book your place so that we know how many are attending and the number of resource packs to provide. This can be done at:
