Englesea Brook Chapel and Museum is one of four Methodist Heritage Sites and uniquely the focal point for Primitive Methodism. It is a project of the Chester and Stoke-on-Trent Methodist District.

Our vision is to tell the Primitive Methodist story and interpret it for today.

Three exciting new opportunities have arisen to take the Project forward in new missional directions.

Do you:

.... have a passion for your faith and social justice?

.... enjoy sharing learning?

.... have an interest in social history?

.... embrace digital solutions for heritage challenges?

If so, are you looking for a new and exciting opportunity? We have three new posts available.

Learning Officer – 21 hours per week. Salary £24,000 pro rata per annum

You will have experience in developing and delivering learning activities in a formal or informal setting/sector across a range of ages and learning styles. You will be responsible for developing a programme of formal and informal learning engagement. You will deliver a programme of events and activities to widen our onsite and online audiences. You will work collaboratively and creatively with colleagues to bring faith stories to life.

Heritage Officer – 21 hours per week. Salary £24,000 pro rata per annum

You will have museum or heritage experience and/or suitable heritage qualifications. You will be responsible for managing, conserving and caring for our collection which includes ceramics and the largest national collection of religious banners. You will work collaboratively to increase access to our faith story. You will lead on maintaining our Museum Accreditation status.

Administrator – 7.5 hours per week, worked flexibly. Salary £18,278 pro rata per annum.

You will be experienced in providing administrative support. You will apply your flair for administration to enhance the mission of the Project. You will bring strong organisational, communication and interpersonal skills. You will meet high standards in accuracy, compliance and targets through confident use of IT.

If you think one of these roles may be for you, contact us for further information.

For an informal chat, Ruth Hilton Project Director Mobile: 0771 962 8393

For an application pack, District Administrator Rob Glassonbury at: chester.stoke@btconnect.com

Closing date for applications Friday 12th February 2021 at 12 noon

Interviews will be by Zoom in week commencing Monday 22nd February 2021
